From Tuesday October 15, to Saturday October 19, 1751.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 16th Day of October, 1751.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to his Majeſty at this Board, That the Journeymen Taylors in and about London, having refuſed to work for the Maſter Taylors on the Terms required by Act of Parliament, the ſaid Maſter Taylors had made Application to the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, at their General Quarter Seſſions held at Hicks's Hall on the 11th of July laſt, to alter the Wages of the ſaid Journeymen, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Court ſhould think juſt and reaſonable, (they having Power by Law ſo to do;) And that thereupon the Wages of the ſaid Journeymen were ordered to be encreaſed, and both Sides acquieſced therein, and ſeemed to be well ſatisfied therewith; yet that many of the ſaid Journeymen do now again refuſe to work for the Wages thereby ſettled and allowed; and great Numbers of them have entered into a Combination, not only not to work for the ſaid encreaſed Wages, but alſo by Force and Violence deter others who are willing to comply therewith, from working; That they are a numerous Body, and have committed many Riots, Tumults, and Outrages; and ſome of them have ſent Letters to the Maſter Taylors, threatning to murder them and fire their Houſes in caſe they would not comply with their illegal Demands, and have actually aſſaulted, beaten, and abuſed ſome of them, to the great Terror of his Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.—His Majeſty taking the ſame into his Royal Conſideration, and thinking it proper for the Preſervation of the Peace, that an immediate Stop ſhould be put to ſuch unlawful Proceedings and Combinations, doth therefore, with the Advice of his Privy Council, hereby order, require and command all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and all other Civil Magiſtrates whatſoever, to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to carry into Execution the Act of Parliament paſſed in the Seventh Year of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, For the Regulation of the Journeymen Taylors within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; as likewiſe all the ſeveral other Laws that have been heretofore made, and are now in Force againſt unlawful Combinations of Workmen, Riots, and Tumults; and alſo againſt ſending threatning Letters; his Majeſty being reſolved to ſuppreſs all ſuch Practices by a moſt ſtrict and exemplary Puniſhment of the Offenders.—And whereas the ſending threatning Letters without any Name, or with fictitious Names ſubſcribed thereto, demanding Money, or any other valuable Thing, is by an Act of Parliament of the Ninth Year of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, declared to be Felony without Benefit of Clergy; his Majeſty is therefore pleaſed for the Encouragement of all Perſons to be diligent and induſtrious in their Endeavours to make Diſcovery of any Perſon or Perſons who knowingly ſent any of the threatning Letters to the Maſter Taylors as aforementioned, hereby to promiſe and declare, That there ſhall be paid to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall within Twelve Months from this Time, diſcover and apprehend any Perſon or Perſons who knowingly ſent any of the threatning Letters as aforeſaid, ſo as he or they ſhall be convicted thereof, the Sum of Fifty Pounds a Piece for each Perſon ſo convicted: And his Majeſty hath given the neceſſary Orders to the Lords Commiſſioners of his Treaſury, for the Payment of the ſaid Rewards accordingly. And his Majeſty does hereby command the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace, and other Magiſtrates, that they do from Time to Time tranſmit an exact Account of what they ſhall do, purſuant to this his Majeſty's Order, to one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Naples, Sept. 30. Laſt Tueſday, being the Birth Day of the King of Spain, the King's Brother, the Court was very numerous and extremely brilliant at Portici, all the principal Nobility and Foreign Miniſters appearing there in their richeſt Habits to compliment their Majeſties on that Occaſion. The Corſairs of Barbary, which have infeſted theſe Coaſts for ſome Weeks paſt, and greatly interrupted our Commerce, having received Information that ſome Ships of War were equipping in this Port with great Diligence, and almoſt ready to put to Sea to give them Chace, are all ſailed off within theſe few Days paſt, in order to cruize elſewhere. By Letters received here from Conſtantinople, by the Way of Venice, we learn, that the Plague ſtill rages there with great Violence, Numbers of the Inhabitants continuing to die every Day of that fatal Diſtemper; and that even thoſe who had retired into the Country, in hopes of eſcaping it, had found but little Security, the Diſtemper having ſpread almoſt twenty Leagues round the City.

Warſaw, Oct. 6. The laſt Advices received here from Kaminieck ſay, that the Dietine which aſſembled there the Middle of laſt Month for the Choice of Deputies to aſſiſt at the General Tribunal of the Kingdom, had ended very ſucceſsfully, without the leaſt Diſpute whatever.

Lubeck, Oct. 6. We learn from Dantzick, that a Ship arrived there lately from Andaluſia, laden with Wine, Oil, Olives, and Cloth of the new Manufacture of Spain, all produced in the Dominions of his Catholick Majeſty; and that they ſhortly expected ſome more Ships from thence, laden with the ſame Species of Merchandize.

Stockholm, Oct. 8. The Diet of the States of this Kingdom, which was opened in Form on Monday laſt in the King's Preſence, has ſince been carried on with great Regularity; and 'tis not doubted but that their Reſolutions will prove entirely agreeable to the King's Intentions.

Copenhagen, Oct. 12. On Sunday laſt Publick Prayers were put up in all the Churches in this City for the happy Delivery of the Queen, who is very far advanced in her Pregnancy. Their Majeſties are expected here Tomorrow from Friedenſbourg. The Ships bound from hence for the Eaſt Indies, will ſhortly put to Sea, moſt of the Officers and Sailors being already on board. According to the laſt Diſpatches received here from the Baron de Juel, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from this Court to that of Sweden, the Diet of the States of that Kingdom opened their Aſſembly on the 4th of this Month; and as their Deliberations have ſince been carried on with the ſtricteſt Harmony, there is great Reaſon to believe the ſame will be attended with Succeſs. The ſame Diſpatches inform us, that his Swediſh Majeſty has lately conferred the Order of the Seraphins on the Prince of Anhalt Cothen.

Dijon, Oct. 14. The Vintage is begun in divers Cantons of this Province, and, conſidering the almoſt continual Rains we had for near two Months together, which prevented the Grapes ripening ſo kindly as they have done for ſome Years paſt, the Wines prove tolerably good.

Frankfort, Oct. 15. The Differences which ſubſiſted for a long Time between the Courts of Heſſe Caſſel and Heſſe Darmſtadt, are, as we are aſſured, in a fair Way of being amicably adjuſted by Commiſſaries appointed for that Purpoſe, who arrived here a few Days ago. The Affair concerning the Church which the Proteſtants have been ſo long ſolliciting to have built in this City, is not yet determined. The Duke de Saxe Meinungen, who went ſome Time ſince to Manheim, returned here on Monday laſt. The Baron de Bu.mania, Envoy Extraordinary from the Republick of Holland to their Imperial Majeſties, paſſed by this Place a few Days ago, on his Way to Munich, from which, after he has executed a private Commiſſion at that Court, he is to proceed on his Journey to Vienna.

Bruſſels, Oct. 18. The Marqueſs de Botta Adorno has lately taken a Tour to Ghent and Bruges, to view the new Canal that is cutting from one of thoſe Cities to the other. We have began to make the neceſſary Preparations for the Reception of Prince Charles of Lorrain, our Governor-General, who is expected here from Vienna towards the End of this Month; and they continue to ſay, that ſoon after his Serene Highneſs's Arrival, ſeveral important Affairs will be brought upon the Carpet.

Whitehall, October 17.

This Morning the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſſe, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, ſet out for the Hague, with his Majeſty's Compliments of Condolence on the Death of his late moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince Stadtholder.

Whitehall, October 19, 1751.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That the Barns of Thomas Galley, Farmer, at Catlidge, in the County of Cambridge, were, on Friday the Eleventh Inſtant, at Eleven o'Clock at Night, maliciouſly ſet on Fire, by ſome ill-deſigning Perſons; whereby the whole Buildings, with all the Corn, Hay, Utenſils, &c. to the Value of Eight Hundred Pounds Sterling, were totally conſumed: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſons concerned in the ſaid wicked Crime, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt Gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon who actually ſet the ſaid Barns on Fire) who ſhall ſhall diſcover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, Peter Taylor, of the Strand, London, Goldſmith, does hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to the Perſon, or Perſons, making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid, by him, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders. Peter Taylor.

April 19, 1751.

General Poſt Office.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy bringing the Cirenceſter Mail to this Office, was Yeſterday Morning, between Two and Three of the Clock, on Gerrard's Croſs Common, between Wickham and Uxbridge, attacked and robbed by a ſingle Highwayman, mounted on a Bay Mare, who carried off the ſaid Mail, which contained the following Bags of Letters, viz.

Briſtol,	Worceſter,
Exeter,	Birmingham,
Tiverton,	Wolverhampton,
Taunton,	Woodſtock,
Wellington,	Bath,
Bridgewater,	Cirenceſter,
Wells,	Glouceſter,
Oxford,	Thame,
Burford,	Wickham,
Witney,	Beconsfield,
Chipping-norton,	Gerrard's Croſs,
Campden,	Abingdon, and
Eveſham,	Farringdon.

The Perſon who committed this Robbery, was a tall luſty black Man, about Six Feet high, between Forty and Fifty Years of Age, marked with the Small Pox, and had on a blue Surtout or Horſeman's Coat, and under it a dark coloured one, with white Metal Buttons, and wore a black or dark coloured Wig, and rode upon a large Brown Bay Horſe or Mare, Fifteen Hands high, with a bald Face, and a dark black Mane, the Tail lately docked and nicked, the Wounds not healed.

This therefore is to give Notice, That whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Perſon or Perſons, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, ſhall make Diſcovery, whereby the Perſon, who committed the ſame, may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have His Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſt-Maſter General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Advertiſements.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or, The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceaſed, at the Unicorn, over-againſt the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are deſired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes ſealed on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderſon's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Iſabella Engliſh underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Uſe in all Caſes where Purging is neceſſary, and may be taken with Epſom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

Correctly printed in a neat Pocket Volume,

(Price Bound Three Shillings,)

The Second Edition of

LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS. Accurately Tranſlated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Piety, Wiſdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Juſtice, Temperance, Love, Friendſhip, Humanity, &c. &c. are deſcribed in all their Branches; the Obligations of them ſhown to conſiſt in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them ſtrongly enforc'd. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, ſcarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a ſtrict Diſcharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thouſand other Decorums, beſides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to inſtill the Principles of all ſocial Virtues into tender Minds.

Printed for W. Johnſton at the Golden Ball in St. Paul's Church Yard.
